Rob

Welcome to Authentic Real English, with me, Rob... but no Feifei! Where is she?

Feifei

哎，真不好意思，我迟到了。Sorry!

Rob

Where have you been?

Feifei

Well, I was on the way to the studio, and I bumped into Richard. And you know Richard – he started to rabbit on about Star Wars!

Rob

Richard's got a rabbit?

Feifei

No, Rob! I mean he wouldn't stop talking. 短语“rabbit on”用来描述某人“唠唠叨叨地说个不停，喋喋不休，以至于让听者兴趣全无、感到无聊”。And Richard was really going on and on and on.

Rob

Hmm... so, it's got nothing to do with rabbits?

Feifei

No, nothing to do with rabbits. Let's hear some examples, shall we?

Examples

Mark just won't stop rabbiting on about the weather – he's so boring!

Freya likes to rabbit on about how amazing her boyfriend is!

Our meeting always overruns because our boss likes to rabbit on about timekeeping!

Feifei

你正在收听的是 BBC 英语教学的“地道英语”节目。上面我们介绍了短语“rabbit on”的含义和用法，它用来描述某人“唠唠叨叨，说个没完没了，让听者兴趣全无”。

Rob

So, what exactly was Richard rabbiting on about anyway?

Feifei

Oh, he was going on about his collection of Star Wars memorabilia.

Rob

Really? Oh, that's fascinating. I love Star Wars – does he have the Chewbacca figure, and the limited-edition Darth Vader mask? Actually, my favourite is the Luke Skywalker...

Feifei

Rob, stop! Now you're rabbiting on.

Rob

Oh, am I boring you? Don't you like Star Wars?

Feifei

No.

Rob

Oh, OK. Time to go, I think. I'll go and chat to Richard instead. Bye.

Feifei

Bye.
